

EVENT DISCLAIMER

The organisers of the tournament do not accept responsibility for any loss of or damage to property or injury to person in the tournament venue, to the extent not prohibited by law. The attendee assumes all risks incidental to the game of golf and attendance at the tournament and related activities, including the risk of being struck by misdirected balls and falls on the tournament site and surrounding areas; and the attendee releases Asian Tour, sponsors, host organisations, players, volunteers, and all agents thereof from all liabilities arising at the tournament.

ASIAN TOUR - CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure a fun, safe and memorable experience for all, please adhere to the Asian Tour Code of Conduct:

Asian Tour promotes a positive environment where all participants, guests, volunteers, and staff are treated with dignity and respect. Cheering and positive gallery responses to great play are encouraged, however, unsolicited, and consistent calls from the gallery toward players and others are prohibited. Any individual or group that verbally abuses, taunts, or shouts insults at the players, caddies, captains, officials and/or their partners or families at any time or displays unruly or disruptive behaviour will result in immediate removal from the premises.

Guests will enjoy the Asian Tour tournament free from disruptive behaviour including, but not limited to foul or abusive language, obscene gestures, fighting, throwing objects, booing, or cheering at inappropriate times, attempting to disrupt play or distract the players from their professional game. Such behaviour includes taunting players, caddies and officials, volunteers, or other fans. Those who engage in any of these actions are subject to immediate ejection from the tournament grounds and subject to criminal trespass or prosecution.

Guests will avoid engaging in behaviour that endangers the safety of players, caddies, officials, volunteers, or other spectators.

Guests consuming alcoholic beverages will do so in a responsible manner. Any impaired, or intoxicated fans will be removed from the tournament grounds and subject to criminal trespass or prosecution.

Underage guests who are found to be consuming alcoholic beverages or any guest who assists in purchasing or supplying alcoholic beverages to underage fans will be removed from the tournament grounds in a prompt and safe manner and subject to criminal prosecution. Guests are encouraged to report any inappropriate behaviour to the nearest tournament representative.

Guests who choose not to adhere to any of these provisions will be denied entry or subject to ejection without refund. Hospitality/VIP Package holders and/or their guests who are identified violating any of these provisions are subject to revocation of their hospitality/ VIP suite, box and/or package for the remainder of the tournament and all future tournaments.

By coming onto the tournament grounds, you accept that you will abide by the basic rules of golf etiquette. Those who do not are subject to expulsion and the loss of ticket and/or credential privileges.

- Stand still and remain quiet when a player is about to hit the ball and until the shot is completed.
- “Hands in the air” means stop and be quiet while golfers are playing their shots.
- Do not stand behind or in line with a golfer’s lie or line to pin.
- Never cross fairways, except at designated crossover areas marked by signage.
- Ensure any mobile device has been placed in the silent mode when on the tournament grounds.
- Follow the directions of the tournament marshals.
- Spectators will be removed immediately without warning for:
